The following statement was entered into the record for Supervisor Yaroslavsky:

“The Los Angeles County Emergency Medical Services Commission will be conducting a Public Hearing on November 13, 2003, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 Noon, at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration to hear expert panel and invited speaker presentations, and public comment related to the confluence of factors that are contributing to the impending crisis in emergency medical services in Los Angeles County.

“These factors include emergency department overcrowding, ambulance diversion, nurse staffing ratios, and reduced hospital and physician reimbursement, among others. Waiving the cost of parking will ensure maximum participation by individuals that are invited to attend and the public.”

Therefore, at the suggestion of Supervisor Yaroslavsky and on motion of Supervisor Molina, seconded by Supervisor Antonovich, unanimously carried (Supervisor Yaroslavsky being absent), the Board waived parking fees totaling $6,800.00, excluding the cost of liability insurance, at the Music Center Garage for attendees of the Los Angeles County Emergency Medical Services Commission's public hearing to be held in Room 381 B of the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration on November 13, 2003.
